

AUXILIARY EVENTS/TOURS

The American College of Gastroenterology

Annual Scientific Meeting and Postgraduate Course

October 28 – November 2, 2011
Gaylord National Hotel and Convention Center, Washington, DC

Tour 1: The Magic of Mount Vernon

Saturday, October 29, 10:00 am – 4:00 pm • Cost: $80 for Auxiliary members, $85 for Non-members

On this special tour you can visit the buildings and beautiful grounds of Mount Vernon and its panoramic views. This museum and the $110 million Ford Orientation Center are filled with state-of-the-art exhibits, interactive displays, and movies that take you through the life and times of Washington, from his young surveyor days to his death at Mount Vernon in December 1789. After your tour of Mt. Vernon you will also enjoy some free time to shop in the many specialty shops and the Torpedo Factory, a mecca for art lovers with a multitude of artist galleries, located on the river.

Tour 2: The Spectacular Kennedy Center, Embassy Row, and Georgetown

Sunday, October 30, 10:00 am – 4:00 pm • Cost: $75 for Auxiliary members, $80 for Non-members

As the nation's performing arts center and a living memorial to President John F. Kennedy, the Kennedy Center is a must see. You'll tour the center, including the majestic Hall of States, Hall of Nations and five of the Center's main theaters. Following your visit to the Kennedy Center, you'll drive on to the section of Massachusetts Avenue known as Embassy Row on your way to Georgetown, Washington's loveliest and liveliest historic district for a visit to the Shops at Georgetown Park, which houses more than 100 fabulous shops, boutiques, galleries and cafes, set in a charming European-style marketplace, blending Victorian and federal architecture.
